This trough will spread mid and high level clouds into northern California, southern Oregon, Nevada and southern Idaho. A few clouds will also move across northern Montana associated with a strong jetstream in southern Canada. The rest of the West will be mostly sunny except for morning fog and low clouds along the coast. High temperatures will mainly be in the 70's and 80's, 60's along the coast and just over 100 in the desert Southwest.
