OUTLOOK: A weak cold front will move into central and southern Florida bringing partly cloudy skies, cooler temperatures, and the chance of isolated showers and thundershowers. High temperatures will be in the mid 70's north and upper 80's in the south. An upper trough of low pressure will be over southern California, bringing mostly sunny skies with a chance of afternoon thundershowers over the mountains. A stationary surface front will be over New Mexico and northern Arizona. Scattered afternoon and evening thunderstorms are expected in Arizona and New Mexico. Highs ranging from the 60's and 70's in the mountains to the 90's and near 100's in the southern deserts. High pressure will be over Wisconsin and Michigan. Mostly sunny except in northern Minnesota where it will be partly cloudy with a chance of afternoon showers. Highs will range from the 50's in Michigan to the 60's in Wisconsin and Minnesota.
